Stomach

Hyperactive

Reasons:

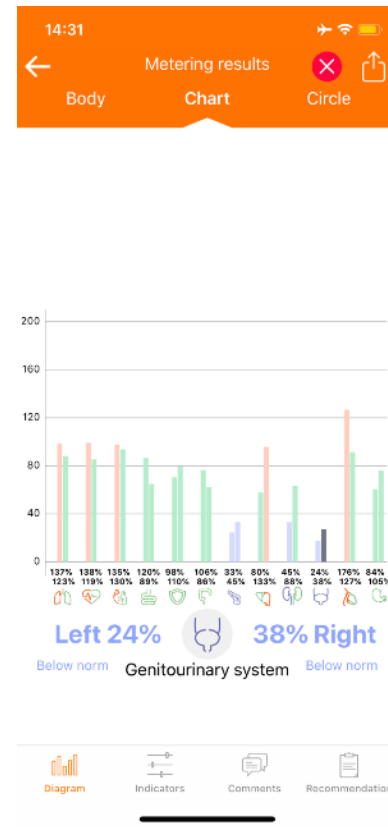

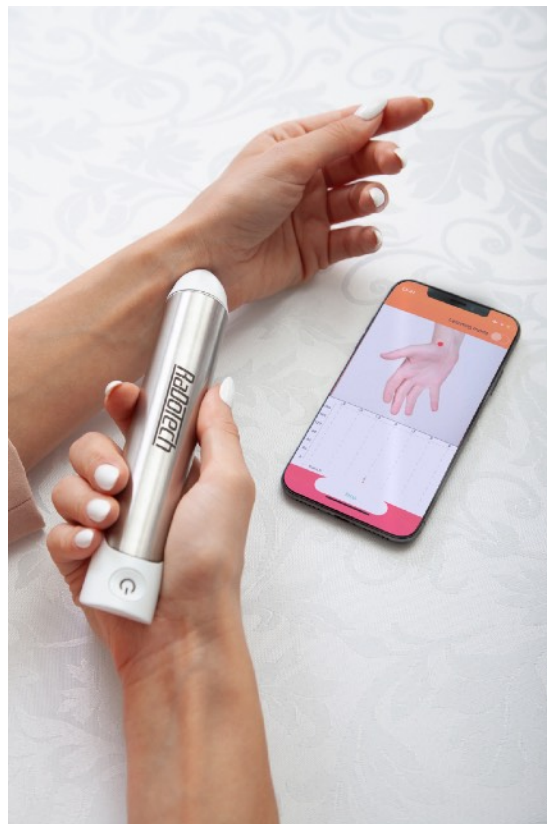

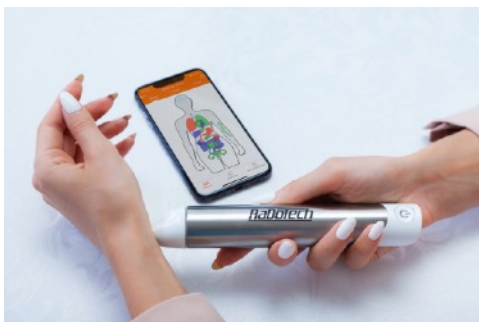

Consequence of dysbiosis of the large intestine, a imbalance of the ratio of normal microflora, pathogenic fungi, enteroviruses and protozoa. Always accompanied by intestinal intoxication, absorption of pathogenic toxins from the large intestine into the blood and into the lymph. Often reason of chronic hemorrhoids (usually internal, without symptoms).

Description:

Often this situation accompanied by gas, bloating, stool one time per day and less. The feeling of heaviness in the projection of the stomach, a zone of 3 to 4 fingers over the belly button, pathological inclusions in the stool

RADOTECH TESTING PROCESS

HOW RaDoTech WORKS

- RaDoTech sends small electrical current, 40 μ A (micro amps), through representative points on surface of skin and measures conductivity.
- 24 points (12 on each side)
- Points are easily found on the body Instructions are on the screen
- Results are processed in cloud
- Shown on a screen of mobile device.
- Using AI and BigData RaDoTech constantly developing and raising level of accuracy and range of potentially upcoming issues that it can track out.

Hello friends,
Mysterious roads led me to the team behind radotech. I have experience with multiple appliances analysing the general state of health. However, it is known that this one is the only one so far with such detail, depth and utility I believe that exactly its properties are extremely valuable and useful. As a nutricionist, radotech will be extremely useful to me in the analyses of both mine and the health of my customers. I recommend it warmly to the people for whom health is priority!
